Dear Ram Family:

Congratulations on the completion of another successful year filled with the makings of memories that will last for a lifetime. We are all part of an exciting time in the university's history, and this Ram yearbook chronicles many of our most significant achievements — new academic programs, new facilities, new friends and colleagues.

Treasure this book as you treasure your memories. Review it often. Mull over its pages, and always remind yourself that college life is truly invigorating — no matter what role you play in it.

To those seniors who are departing to take on new academic or professional challenges, I extend heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for continued success. To returning students, I offer encouragement to continue your commitment to earn a degree and achieve your goals. To all members of the University Family, I thank you for your support and cooperation as we work together for the cause of excellence in education.

Sincerely,

Cleon F. Thompson, Jr.

THE TOMMY LINE - TONGUE BR

The Class of 1994

On August 13, 1990, a young, eager group of freshmen entered Winston-Salem State University to begin college life — a totally new way of life that required significant adjustments. To start our adjustments, we elected Ronald Benson-El as class president and Keith Swindell as vice president. Kesha Ross was elected recording secretary, Bill Henry as treasurer and the lovely Nicole McMillan as Miss Freshman. Class representatives were Trammel Lackey, Kia Johnson, Serena Mumford, and Tonya Woods. In keeping with tradition, we selected class colors — blue and green — and a class motto: I Will Not Go Where The Road May Lead, I Will Go Where There Is No Road And Leave A Trail. Dr. Fred Eady accepted the responsibility of providing guidance for us as class advisor.

The first year was an exciting one with such entertainment highlights as concerts by Evangelist Shirley Caesar and the Harlem Boys Choir and a presentation of the musical "Momma Don't." Joseph "Jo-Jo" Gardner was crowned Mr. Ram, and the football team captured the CIAA championship.

The O'Kelly Library addition and the Diggs Gallery were dedicated with much fanfare and pride. Yet, in the midst of our celebration, we were ever mindful of our soldiers in the Persian Gulf and prayed for their safe return.

As we ended our first year at WSSU, we renewed our confidence in Ronald Benson-El and elected him to lead us for a second year. Serena Mumford was elected vice president and Valonda Brinton as Miss Sophomore.

Our second year featured the music of the Winans and Shirley Murdock. We made our mark — and a few dollars for class projects — with doughnut and candy-gram sales and a Homecoming dance with door prizes. Once again the football team brought home the CIAA championship, and Dr. Mae C. Jemison, an astronaut and medical doctor, delivered the Founder's Day address.

The university's Centennial Celebration began in the middle of our sophomore year, with a flag-raising ceremony and an inspiring speech by noted educator and minister Dr. Samuel Proctor. We were part of one of the most memorable moments in the institution's history!

We closed the year by electing Serena Mumford as president and Ronald Benson-El as vice president. Nicole McMillan earned the title of Miss Junior.

The 1992-93 school year brought an increased seriousness about challenges and opportunities that awaited us. Sadly, one of our greatest challenges was dealing with the death of Dr. Haywood L. Wilson, Jr., a man who genuinely believed that the student is the most important person on the campus.

"Bearing the Test," an exhibit of university memorabilia, opened in the Diggs Gallery and showcased historical documents, photographs, and other items dating back to the founding of the institution. The end of the first semester signaled the end of the Centennial Celebration and the retirement of Dr. Eady. With Dr. Eady's departure, Mrs. Margaret Poston was appointed class advisor.

Second semester brought another historical moment. Coach Clarence E. "Bighouse" Gaines announced his retirement after more than 800 basketball victories, election to numerous halls of fame, and nearly a half century of service to Winston-Salem State University.

The music of Naughty by Nature and the comedy of Bernie Mack reverberated throughout the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium, and Homecoming activities included a party in the gym and a variety show. We also sponsored a battle of the DJs contest. A warm International Day provided an ideal setting for a snowcone sale, and a class-sponsored fashion show attracted a big audience.

The year ended with the selection of the lovely and personable Tywanki Quick as Miss WSSU. The election also gave us a dedicated slate of officers to lead us through our final year: Serena Mumford, president; Nicole McMillan, vice president; Pam Evans, recording secretary; Antwon Farris, corresponding secretary; Monica Jenkins, treasurer; Latisha Fletcher, parliamentarian; and Catina Bullard, historian. The beautiful Sherri Mangum was elected Miss Senior. Marlon Davis, Joyce Dove, Kelly Goodman, and Stamarian Watts were tapped as class representatives, and Dr. Eady came out of retirement and joined Mrs. Poston as co-advisor to the class.

Our focus in our Senior year has been preparation for graduation and career opportunities. Our activities have been a Homecoming block party and talent show that was co-sponsored with our Alumni. We also participated in the World Food Day drive. Seasonal activities included a Thanksgiving food donation and the adoption of two children for Christmas.

Now as we embark on careers as varied and diverse as our backgrounds, we look upon these fast few moments together as an opportunity to rejoice in our successes. We hold a treasure chest of memories in our hearts; good times and friendships that we will value forever.

Indeed we are fortunate to have had the opportunity to be educated in an environment such as this one, that supports our total social and intellectual growth.

This is not the last you will hear from us, as we will continue to give to this fine University that has given so much to us. We would like to bid a fond farewell to all and a most sincere THANK YOU to Winston-Salem University for the opportunity to be a part of the ILLUSTRIOUS RAM FAMILY!

Respectfully Submitted,
The WSSU Class of 1994

Colophon

Volume 59 of the Winston-Salem State University Ram was published by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas using offset lithography processes. Our publishing representative was Keyin Hicks. The trim size of the 1994 Ram was 9 x 12 and contained 240 pages. The book was printed using 100% black ink.

The Ram was Smythe-sewn and round and backed on #15 (150 pt.) binders board. The cover is gray vellum with black and red hot foil-stamping. The cover is an original design by Mark C. Walton, with separations by April Enos-Ford of Houston, Texas.

Endleaves were printed on 10 point coated one-side with different designs front and back. The endsheets were printed with black ink and hot foil-stamped in red. Thanks to Delores Landin of Taylor Publishing Company for endsheet design help.

All four-color separations were made by Taylor Publishing Company on a Hell Chromagraph color scanner and printed using 150 line screens. All color portraits were shot by Beaufort Bailey on 70 mm Kodak Vericolor III film and printed on Fuji color papers. All other pictures were shot using 35 mm Fuji film, and printed on Kodak paper.

The Winston-Salem State University Ram is the first college yearbook in North Carolina to be printed using a digital process. All black and white pictures are output with individual dot enhancement.

Typestyles were as follows: body copy is 10 point Seville with 12 point leading, and folios printed in 10 pt. Eric with solid leading. Section headlines: Opening, Closing, Underclassmen, and Who's Who in 30 pt. Caslon Openface with solid leading; Greeks in Amazonia; Faculty in Eric Condensed; Sports in Universe Merlium Extra Condensed; Seniors in Copperplate Gothic Bold; Homecoming in Fenice Bold, and Clubs and Organizations in Kabel Bold.

The Ram had a press run of 1500 copies and is prepared by a volunteer staff selected from a list of applicants. Opinions expressed are those of the individual authors and are not necessarily those of the students, administration, faculty, or staff.

Winston-Salem State University's colors are red and white. The mascot is the Ram. There are 2817 students enrolled.
